North Wales. July 1. 1862.

Dear Mr. Garrison,

Remember so well your last visit to Manchester. When you stayed at my house, and all your kindness and goodness to me. That I cannot refrain from sending you a "Volcanic" this time also, and with the Volcano an assurance of regard. Respect, reverence, stranger but dear by twenty years of unceasingless trust and sympathy the University of Cambridge and after six months "hard reading" has gone "to grass" as our Country friends say. I am sorry he will miss seeing you in Manchester, but I hope he may meet you in Belfast.

Hoping soon to see you & your children.
Please give, dear Mr. Garrison, With the utmost respect & affection, Yours, very sincerely, R. Moore.

in you, and for the Good Cause to which you have devoted your life.

I am staying with my friend Miss Harriet Lupton, de Wale, just now, but I intend to be in Manchester on the 15th. and hope to meet you there.

I am sorry my friend Miss Estlin is not able to come as I hoped. I am to give you her love, with my own, when I grasp your hand.

My Son - Norman a lot of beauty - desires also to be remembered to you - He is in Ireland at present, for his Holiday.

He is a Student at

Mrs. Rebecca Moore,
July 1, 1867.

North Wales.

My friend Harriet Lupton, whom you saw at Headingley, near Leeds, when you were last in England, desires her kindest regards to you. If she were strong enough she would come with me to Manchester to see you —
